

LABOR DOESN'T SUPPORT EQUALITY. DO YOU?

Marriage is an important way to demonstrate love and commitment. Denying loving couples the right to marry because of their gender or sexuality is simply unfair.

The vast majority of Australians support the right of same-sex couples to marry, yet Kevin Rudd has promised anti-gay groups he will block this important reform.

The Rudd Government says same-sex couples should be grateful for recent reforms which gave them some financial rights but not equality in marriage.

Labor politicians will not deliver marriage equality until the electorate forces them to.

At this year's election, we need your support to achieve full legal equality for gay and lesbian Australians

Labor doesn't support equality. Don't support them.

So...

LABOR DOESN'T CARE. DO YOU?

Kevin Rudd continues to ignore:

- An increase in the number of countries that allow same-sex marriage including Spain, Canada, Portugal, Mexico and South Africa.
- High support for marriage equality in Australia, 60% in favour (Galaxy poll, July 2009).
- Support for equal marriage from Australian churches, unions and major corporations.
- Constant requests to explain why he opposes such an important reform.
