

ADVERTISEMENT

I am the proud mother of two sons. My eldest son is gay, the youngest is straight. My gay son should have the same rights as his brother - including the right to marry the person he loves.

A recent national opinion poll found that 60% of Australians believe that same sex couples should have this right.

Mr Rudd, my son is not a second rate citizen - or do you think he is? Other countries are leading the way by legally recognising same sex marriage. Show your leadership and do the same.

Written by Shelley Argent OAM

Funded by Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG)

For further information, please visit: www.australianmarriageequality.com